BOLLINGER S P E C T R E CRYSTAL SET 007™

To celebrate the on-screen release of the new James Bond film, S P E C T R E, the House of Bollinger – which has been allied with her Most Gracious Majesty's famous agent since 1979 – has decided to create a unique object expressing the ultimate degree of refinement and excellence so beloved of 007.

“For this exceptional creation, Champagne Bollinger has chosen a partner that shares the same values of French excellence and exacting standards of quality, the Saint-Louis Crystalworks.”

Jérôme Philipon, President of Champagne Bollinger

Founded in Lorraine in 1586 and becoming the leading crystalworks in Continental Europe in 1781, Saint-Louis – which now belongs to the Hermès group – has successfully preserved its unique know-how. In their workshops, the master glassblowers keep alive the art of hand-blown crystal, continuing to excel above all in the art of cutting, which is a true hallmark of this great Lorraine crystalworks.

EXCELLENCE AND TRANSLUCENCY FOR A UNIQUE WINE, A MAGNUM OF BOLLINGER R.D. 1988

The BOLLINGER S P E C T R E CRYSTAL SET was created and designed by designer Eric Berthès. He wanted to create a showcase for a real nectar, Bollinger R.D. 1988. A rare, unequalled champagne, which matures for a long time on its lees to give an exceptional aromatic complexity and long finish.

The magnum of Bollinger R.D. 1988 can be glimpsed, beautifully enhanced and encased in its Saint-Louis crystal presentation. Its base echoes 007's iconic gun barrel, like a fingerprint, while the top of the tin neck label featuring the «BOLLINGER 007» signature is set off with a cabochon marked with the sign of the octopus, the Spectre!

MAISON FONDÉE EN 1829

The history of Bollinger is the history of a family that has passionately defended its values and unique know-how since the House's inception in the Champagne village of Ay back in 1829.

Six generations of the Bollinger family have patiently built up an impressive heritage, always devoted to the service of what has become one of the most emblematic Houses the Champagne region has ever known. Today the House remains resolutely independent. As it has gradually expanded throughout the world, it has become a major global brand name.

Bollinger produces great champagnes with a powerful and sophisticated style. The Bollinger style is inimitable and recognised as such by the great champagne lovers.

This «BOLLINGER S P E C T R E CRYSTAL SET 007» is available from a number of select wine merchants at an average retail price of 5007 €, and in Saint-Louis stores in Paris, London, Hong Kong, Shanghai and Taipei.
